

Business models are changing... Technology is revolutionizing the way we work... The knowledge-based economy is here... Right Now. It is critical that HR leverage a strategy to attract and engage the right talent to drive organizational success...

...At times like these, we all need support. The Arizona HR Executive Forum is here for you...

We are a professional HR organization whose mission is grounded in the support & development of executive Human Resources leaders. The Arizona HR Executive Forum (AzHREF) builds transformational leaders and enhances organizational performance through shared expertise & executive-level learning.

To complement our current programs, we are excited to announce the addition of several new and exciting programs on the horizon for 2016 and 2017:

- Nine strategic, timely and relevant HR Programs, presented throughout the year. Programs are pre-certified for CEU credits.
- An Annual Signature Event that brings top thought leaders from the national business stage to you.
- The Emerging HR Leader Program – a program that facilitates career development of the local HR community by assessing competency and proficiency levels, identifying gaps and presenting development experiences to hone skills and knowledge. This program will serve as a foundation to position leaders for vertical career advancement as well as horizontal movement across functional units.
- Community Outreach to align AzHREF values and strategy with the local and national HR community. We continue to support current alliances while we explore new strategic alliances that match untapped talent within the business community.
- An Executives in Transition Program to support senior level executives in the search process.

We welcome like-minded professionals that can find mutual benefit with the forum. Visit us at www.azhref.org to further explore. We welcome your questions and interest.
